

Masterclass

Executions and the Executed Body in the Early Modern World

with Dr. Anna Cusack (Oxford) & Dr. Sarah von Hagen (Göttingen)

16 December 2025, 12:00–16:00, KWZ 2.636

Apply with a short motivation statement (max. 300 words) by 1 December 2025 to sarah.hagen@uni-goettingen.de Open to advanced BA, MA, and PhD students.

Public executions and the treatment of executed bodies were a striking feature of early modern societies. This masterclass explores how executions were enacted, represented, and discussed – and how the executed body functioned as a site of meaning, discipline, and public engagement.

